Service of documents

registered

registered letter addressed to him at his last known residence or office address as shown by the records of the Society, and service shall be effected not less than ten days before the date of the hearing or the event or thing required to be done, as the case may be, and proof by affidavit of the service is sufficient. New.

Disbarment, etc.,
for
misconduct

34. If a member is found guilty of professional misconduct or of conduct unbecoming a barrister and solicitor after due investigation by a committee of Convocation, Convocation may by order cancel his membership in the Society by disbarring him as a barrister and striking his name off the roll of solicitors or may by order suspend his rights and privileges as a member for a period to be named or may by order reprimand him or may by order make such other disposition as it considers proper in the circumstances. R.S.O. 1960, c. 207, s. 44 (1), amended.

Suspension
incapacity

35. If a member has been found pursuant to any Act to be mentally incompetent or mentally ill, or has been found after due inquiry by a committee of Convocation incapable of practising law as a barrister and solicitor by reason of age, physical or mental illness including addiction to alcohol or drugs, or any other cause, Convocation may by order limit or suspend his rights and privileges as a member for such time and on such terms as it considers proper in the circumstances. R.S.O. 1960, c. 207, s. 45 (1), amended.

Suspension
for failure to pay fees

36. If a member fails to pay any fee or levy payable by him to the Society within four months after the day on which payment was due, Convocation may by order suspend his rights and privileges as a member for such time and on such terms as it considers proper in the circumstances. R.S.O. 1960, c. 207, s. 45 (1), part, amended.

Reprimand
in committee
for

37. If a committee of Convocation finds that a member has been guilty of professional misconduct or conduct unbecoming a barrister and solicitor which in its opinion does not warrant disbarment, suspension or reprimand in Convocation, the committee may by order reprimand him. New.

Student members'

38. If a student member is found after due inquiry by a committee of Convocation guilty of conduct unbecoming a student member, the committee may by order reprimand him or Convocation may by order cancel his student membership or may by order suspend his rights and privileges as a student member for a period to be named or may by order reprimand him or may by order make such other disposition as it considers proper in the circumstances. R.S.O. 1960, c. 207, s. 44 (2), amended.

39.—(1) Any member who has been found guilty under section 37 or any student member who has been found guilty under section 38 and, in either case, has been ordered to be reprimanded in committee, may appeal from the order of reprimand to Convocation within fifteen days from the day upon which he is served with the order of the committee. Appeal to Convocation

(2) An appeal under this section shall be by motion, notice of which shall be served upon the Secretary, and the record shall consist of a copy of the proceedings before the committee, the evidence taken, the committee's report and all decisions, findings and orders of the committee in the matter. Procedure and record

(3) Upon the hearing of an appeal under this section, Convocation may vary the punishment imposed by the committee or may refer the matter or any part thereof back to a committee with such directions as it considers proper or may make such order as it considers proper in the circumstances. Orders

(4) No benchers who sat on the committee of Convocation when the order appealed from was made shall take any part in the hearing of the appeal in Convocation. Disqualification

(5) Subject to section 44, the decision of Convocation under this section is final and not subject to any further appeal. New. Decision final

40. A person whose membership or student membership has been cancelled or whose rights and privileges as a member or student member have been suspended or who has been reprimanded may be ordered to pay the expense, or part of the expense, incurred by the Society in the investigation or hearing of any complaint in respect of which he has been found guilty. R.S.O. 1960, c. 207, s. 44 (3), amended. Expenses of investigations

41. Where it appears that disciplinary proceedings against a member or student member were unwarranted, Convocation may order that such costs as it considers just be paid by the Society to the member or student member whose conduct was the subject of the proceedings. New. Costs where disciplinary proceedings unwarranted

42.—(1) If the Treasurer or the Secretary or the chairman or the vice-chairman of any committee of Convocation dealing with disciplinary matters has reasonable cause to believe that a member has been or may be guilty of misconduct in connection with any property in his possession or under his control, a judge of the Supreme Court may, upon an ex parte application by the Society, order that the property described in the order shall not be paid out or dealt with by the person or persons named in the order without the leave of a judge of the Supreme Court. 1960-61, c. 44, s. 1, amended. Stop-orders on members' bank accounts, etc.

Discharge,
etc., of stop-orders

(2) Any person may apply to a judge of the Supreme Court for an order varying or discharging any order made under subsection 1. New.

Appointment of trustees

43.—(1) Where a member or former member dies, disappears or leaves Ontario or a person's membership in the Society is cancelled or his rights and privileges as a member are suspended and, in any such event, his practice is neglected to the prejudice of any person or no provision has been made for the protection of his clients' interests, a judge of the Supreme Court may, upon an ex parte application by the Society, by order appoint a person as trustee, with or without bond, to take possession of any property in the possession of or under the control of such member or former member for the purpose of preserving, carrying on or winding up the practice of such member or former member.

Idem

(2) A person appointed under subsection 1 shall, in respect of any trust property of such member or former member, be the trustee thereof, and he shall in respect thereof take the place of the personal representative, committee or other representative, if any, of such member or former member.

Discharge,
etc., of
order

(3) Any person may apply to a judge of the Supreme Court for an order varying or discharging any order made under subsection 1.

Fees, etc.,
of trustee

(4) The judge may in any order under this section make provision for the remuneration, disbursements and indemnification of the trustee out of such moneys or otherwise as the judge may specify. New.

Appeal to Court of Appeal

44.—(1) Any person dissatisfied with a decision of Convocation made under section 30, 32 or 46, or any person against whom an order has been made under section 34, 35 or 36, or any person against whom an order, other than an order of reprimand in committee, has been made under section 38, or any person whose punishment has been ordered to be increased under subsection 3 of section 39 may appeal from the decision or order to the Court of Appeal within fifteen days from the day upon which he is served with the decision or order.

Certified copies of papers

(2) Upon the request of any person desiring to appeal and upon payment of the cost thereof, the Secretary shall furnish such person with a certified copy of all proceedings, evidence, reports, orders and papers received as evidence in Convocation and any committee thereof in dealing with and disposing of the matter complained of.

(3) If the appellant fails to pay the cost of the certified copy ^{Failure to pay costs} and the cost of such additional copies of the evidence as may be reasonably required for the purposes of the appeal within fifteen days after written demand from the Secretary, the appeal shall be deemed to be abandoned.
